

Media Advisory – Probation and Sacramento Kings Organization for César E. Chávez National Day of Service

Sacramento, CA – March 30, 2017

WHAT: Sacramento County Probation will partner with the Sacramento Kings Organization and Foundation for the César E. Chávez National Day of Service to create a volunteer event at the Sacramento County Youth Detention Facility (YDF). The event will involve over 100 volunteers and staff from the Sacramento Kings and the Northern California Construction Training (NCCT) program.

WHEN: March 31, 2017, at 9:00 a.m. – 2:30 p.m.

WHERE: Sacramento County Youth Detention Facility, 9601 Kiefer Boulevard, Sacramento, 95827

VISUALS: The Sacramento Kings will host a basketball clinic, scrimmage games and career development workshops for youth in the YDF. Volunteers will also work on sketching and painting murals inside the facility. NCCT and volunteers will be working on outdoor projects including building new raised planter boxes and picnic tables for the YDF garden.

RESOURCES: César E. Chávez Day of Service is celebrated in many parts of the United States and observed every year on March 31. The celebration serves as a tribute to César's commitment to social justice and respect for human dignity.

"The partnership with the Sacramento Kings, NCCT and the 100+ volunteers converging on the Youth Detention Facility on César Chávez Day is truly amazing and reinforces for the kids in the facility that their community really cares about them and supports their effort to change behavior," Chief Deputy Brian Lee says of the event.

CONTACT: Carol Paris, Assistant Chief Deputy at ParisC@SacCounty.net, (916) 875-0324.