SACRAMENTO COUNTY PROBATION DEPARTMENT CONDUCTS DUI OPERATION ON HIGH-RISK DUI OFFENDERS

Sacramento, CA – On October 13, 2017, the Sacramento County Probation Department along with the Sacramento City Police Department conducted a special enforcement operation. The operation, supported by funding from the California Office of Traffic Safety through the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, focused on the compliance of DUI offenders with their Court Orders.

The operation resulted in:

- 91 preliminary alcohol screening (PAS) tests administered.
- 4 preliminary alcohol screening (PAS) tested positive
- 11 offenders cited and their vehicles were towed by Sacramento Police Department for driving on a suspended license; and
- 15 DUI related arrests and one No-Bail warrant walked in the office.

Of the 16 arrests:

- 9 offenders were arrested for violating the terms of their probation conditions;
- 1 offender was arrested for a Felony No-Bail warrant; and
- 6 PRCS offender violated their post-release supervision conditions.

The Sacramento County Probation Department is committed to reducing impaired driving and, through partnerships with the Office of Traffic Safety and local law enforcement agencies, continues striving to make the roadways of Sacramento County safer.
